Knowledge Organiser – Year 2 – R VIPs 3.1

Article 28 I have the right to an education

Key Knowledge

VIPs: VIP stands for Very Important Person. Our VIPs are the important people in our lives, the people who are special to us and show us that they really care.

Friends: Having friends in our lives is important as they can help us to feel good and have happy times as well as support us when we are facing more challenging situations.

Friendship Qualities:

Falling Out: Where two or more people have a disagreement over something. This is also known as a conflict or an argument.

How does it feel when we fall out with people? It can make us feel sad, worried and sometimes a little bit cross. This is quite normal but what we do with those feelings is the important thing.

What steps can we take to help us work out any arguments we have?

- Walk away, cool off and calm down.
- Count to ten and then use kind words and friendly voices.
- Think or write about the ways to make the situation better.

Bullying: People can choose to hurt other people with their words and actions repeatedly - this is bullying.

- ✓ It is important to tell an adult you trust what has been happening and to ask for help.

Cooperation and Working Together: We can achieve wonderful things when we cooperate and work together – we can have a lot of fun too! We also need to use a lot of different skills. We need to listen to everyone's ideas, share the jobs, give help to others and look after everyone's feelings.

Showing You Care: Showing the special people in our lives that we care about them lets them know that we appreciate them and all they do for us. This can help the relationships we have with our special people to become even stronger.
